SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of FIVE (5) YEARS as to Count One, FIVE (5) YEARS as to Count Two and FIVE (5) YEARS as to Count Three, all counts to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Court.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the Court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the Court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the Court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the Court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with the law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office will share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
2. You must participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, and follow the rules and regulations of that program until such time as you are released from the program by the probation officer, and must pay at least a portion of the cost according to your ability, as determined by the probation officer.
3. You must participate in a sex offender assessment and/or treatment, as approved by the probation officer, which may include physiological testing, such as polygraph, and/or ABEL Assessment.
4. Your residence and employment must be pre-approved by the probation officer.
5. You must have no contact with minors (under the age of 18) without the written approval of the probation officer and must refrain from entering any area where children frequently congregate including, but not limited to parks, schools, day care centers, playgrounds, theme parks, theaters, and playgrounds.
6. You must not have contact with the victim(s) in this case. This includes any physical, visual, written, electronic or telephonic contact with such persons. Additionally, you must not directly cause or encourage anyone else to have such contact with the victim(s).
7. You must not purchase or possess photographic or video equipment without the prior knowledge and permission of the probation officer.
8. You must not access or possess any computer or computer-related devices, other electronic communication, data storage devices, or media in any manner or for any purpose.
9. You must not have another individual access the internet on your behalf to obtain files or information which you are restricted from accessing yourself or accepting files or information from another person.
10. You must not work in any type of employment without the prior approval of the probation officer.
11. You must be monitored by location monitoring technology at the discretion of the U.S. Probation Officer for a period of four (4) months. During that time, you must abide by all technology requirements and location monitoring program rules and pay the cost of participation in the location monitoring program as directed by the U.S. Probation Office.

The location monitoring technology must be utilized to monitor the following restriction on the offender's movement in the community as well as other court-imposed conditions of release:

Home Detention: You are restricted to your residence except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The cost of location monitoring is based on the selected monitoring technology and subject to change depending on vendor availability, services rendered, and contracts negotiated and selected by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts.
